

American Homefront During WWII Quiz

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. Historical inquiry is an alternative to
 - a. Taking tests to prove you know something
 - b. Using text books to learn about historical events
 - c. Doing homework to practice what you learned during the school day
 - d. Asking questions to make sure you understand what the teacher just said
2. An example of a primary source is
 - a. A movie based on a true story
 - b. A news paper article celebrating the ten year anniversary of an event
 - c. A firsthand account provided by someone who witnessed an event
 - d. All of the above
3. The United States entered WWII after
 - a. The Germans attacked Pearl Harbor
 - b. The Italians attacked Pearl Harbor
 - c. The Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor
 - d. The British attacked Pearl Harbor
4. Anti Japanese propaganda promoted
 - a. Anger and fear towards Japanese Americans
 - b. Understanding and empathy towards Japanese Americans
 - c. Trust and acceptance of Japanese Americans
 - d. American tourism to Japan
5. A source is considered reliable if
 - a. The person who created it is nice
 - b. The person who created it was present during the event and has no known reason to lie
 - c. The person who created it told you that it is the truth
 - d. All of the above